PARTICIPATING AGENCY: Rockland BOCES.

For this promotion examination, eligibles can be appointed only in the jurisdiction in which they are presently employed.

SALARY: In accordance with the appropriate labor agreement.

WHAT THE JOB IS LIKE: This is technical physical therapy work of a complex nature which involves a responsibility for performing and assisting in the technical oversight of the treatment of patients related to injuries, disease or disabilities by physical means such as massage, exercise, heat application, and mechanical apparatus and equipment. Therapy is performed in accordance with a physician's prescription. General supervision is received from a higher-level administrator. Supervision is exercised over Physical Therapists and Physical Therapy Assistants. Does related work as required.

When completing the application, your description of experience must specify the dates of your employment, the number of hours worked per week, your title, and the main duties for each. Be specific; vagueness will not be resolved in your favor. Candidates who submit incomplete applications or documentation may be disqualified.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: You must be currently employed by Rockland BOCES and have one (1) year of permanent competitive class status there as a Physical Therapist within a period of three (3) years immediately preceding the examination date.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS:

- 1. A license to practice as a Physical Therapist issued or recognized by the New York State Education Department must be valid at the time of appointment and throughout the course of employment in this title. The appointing authority shall have the responsibility for verification of the Physical Therapy license.
- 2. Possession of a valid driver's license or accessibility to transportation when fieldwork is required. The appointing authority shall have the responsibility for the verification of the driver's license which may be checked throughout the course of employment in this title.

NOTE: If you were permanently appointed to a qualifying title and had provisional or continent-permanent service in the same title immediately preceding the permanent appointment, such service shall be counted towards meeting the time in the title required to apply for this examination.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: There will be no written or oral test for this examination. Candidates who meet the minimum qualifications will receive a rating based on an evaluation of their training and experience against the background of the duties of the position. You are, therefore, asked to include in your application a summary of all pertinent training and experience in detail so that your background may be evaluated against the duties of the position. Your application will be rated on the following items. Make sure your application and supporting documents are thorough to maximize your potential for achieving the highest score.

- 1. Do you possess a Master's degree in a Physical Therapy program registered by the New York State Department of Education or accredited by a national accreditation agency authorized by the New York State Education Department? (See transcript statement.)
- 2. Do you possess a license to practice as a Physical Therapist issued or recognized by the New York State Education Department? (Must include your license number in your application.)
- 3. Do you have any continuing education in the field of Physical Therapy? (i.e., formal degree programs, in-service education, professional seminars or convocations, or other educational activities designed to help maintain and improve skills and keep abreast of the physical therapy field.) (Must include proof of any continuing education with your application.)
- 4. Do you have any paid work experience as a Physical Therapist? (Must include starting month and year and ending month and year as well as hours per week worked.)
