

CRIMINAL INVESTIGATOR (SPANISH-SPEAKING)

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: This is specialized investigative work of a moderately complex nature which involves selecting the methods and resources needed to establish and correlate facts concerning criminal complaints and suspected or committed crimes. The purpose of such investigations is to accumulate valid evidence to assist in the legal work of the District Attorney. The work is distinguished from that of a Criminal Investigator in that some of the duties performed in this position require the incumbent to possess speaking and reading ability in Spanish at the fluency level indicated below in the Notes. There is considerable independence exercised in the planning of investigative procedures, although technical and other direction of complex cases may be provided by a Senior Criminal Investigator. Incumbents are Police Officers as defined by Article 1.20(34)(g) of Criminal Procedure Law. This work requires on call duties including nights and weekends. Does related work as required.

TYPICAL WORK ACTIVITIES:

Conducts investigations of suspected criminal activity and crimes committed in the County including, but not limited to activity involving homicides, robberies, fraud, extortion, assaults, rapes, gambling, narcotics, white-collar crimes, organized criminal activity, and cases involving public officials, officers or their employees in the course of their public functions;

Prepares cases for all stages of criminal prosecution, including responsibility for the chain of evidence and the interviewing of witnesses for Grand Jury presentations and trials;

Prepares both daily and case progress reports;

May travel out of state on investigations as well as extradition proceedings and to take custody of prisoners;

May conduct special investigations, prepare special reports and do other related work as assigned by the District Attorney or a designee.

FULL PERFORMANCE KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, ABILITIES AND PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS:

Good knowledge of investigative techniques and procedures; good knowledge of New York laws and rules; good knowledge of investigative interviewing techniques; ability to gather, assemble, analyze and evaluate facts and evidence, draw logical conclusions, and make recommendations; ability to organize and conduct routine investigations; ability to analyze and apply legal principles; ability to communicate effectively, and to prepare and present precise written and verbal reports; ability to speak, read and understand colloquial Spanish and to translate into acceptable English; ability to establish and maintain cooperative and effective relations with others.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

1. An Associate's degree or equivalent college credits (minimum of sixty (60) credits) and five (5) years of post-degree, paid work experience as a sworn member of a police agency including Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), United States Marshals Service, Homeland Security Investigations (HSI), Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms (ATF), United States Postal Inspector; or
2. A Bachelor's degree and three (3) years of post-degree, paid work experience as a sworn member of a police agency including Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), United States Marshals Service, Homeland Security Investigations (HSI), Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms (ATF), United States Postal Inspector; or
