The work is performed under the direct supervision of a higher-level examiner and in accordance with State guidelines, regulations and established departmental procedures. Does related work as required.

TYPICAL WORK ACTIVITIES:

Reviews certification forms for completeness and accuracy;
Interviews applicants for assistance and recipients of assistance and gathers information necessary for making eligibility determinations;
Collects and evaluates information and documentation in accordance with State regulations and established departmental policies and procedures;
Evaluates applicants' financial resources and makes preliminary eligibility determinations for assistance in accordance with laws, regulations and policies and procedures;
Prepares forms with required budget information, case status and demographics;
Advises applicants of program eligibility, amount of grant, obligations, etc.;
Makes referrals for field investigations;
Enters financial information used for budget calculations into a computer terminal and retrieves information, when necessary;
Determines which documents are appropriate and reviews them to verify eligibility and/or to determine if further action is required;
Initiates contacts with outside agencies to verify eligibility for financial assistance;
Makes recommendations for disposition of cases reviewed;
May refer applicant to appropriate social services sections (e.g., resource, housing, employment, legal, medical, etc.) and outside agencies;
May testify at administrative or judicial hearings.

FULL PERFORMANCE KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, ABILITIES AND PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS:

Good knowledge of Federal, State and local Social Services laws and programs as they affect eligibility for financial assistance in various Social Services programs; working knowledge of the Welfare Management System; working knowledge of laws (Workers' Compensation, Social Security, Unemployment Insurance, etc.) which also affect eligibility*; working knowledge of interviewing techniques and principles; ability to establish and maintain cooperative relationships with others; ability to gather and analyze facts and make basic determinations as to financial eligibility of clients; ability to understand and carry out oral and written instructions; ability to understand and interpret written material; ability to speak, read and understand colloquial Spanish and to translate into acceptable English; awareness, knowledge and understanding of Hispanic culture and mores.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

1. An Associate's degree or equivalent college credits (a minimum of sixty (60) credits) and two (2) years of experience in the human services field; or
2. A Bachelor's degree or higher may be deemed fully qualifying.
